

Unlocking the Written Word for Everyone

Designed in partnership with administrators, librarians, and teachers across New York and New Jersey this collection includes CASEL-aligned Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) competencies to support healthy classroom discourse. The Newsela LGBTQIA+ Studies Collection provides districts and schools with resources that explore the history and topics associated with the LGBTQIA+ community throughout the past 100 years.

The Collection provides authentic content aligned to reinforce instruction and learning around topics such as:

- Gender Identity
- Understanding Intersectionality
- Marginalization
- History of Gay Rights
- LGBTQIA+ Contributions
- Allyship & Taking Informed Action

Professional Learning

- Historical Thinking Skills Newsela helps students become critical historians and readers by giving them access to non-dominant untold narratives
- Harmonizing your Instruction with the LGBTQIA+ Collection
Embed our LGBTQIA+ collection into your Scope and Sequence in ELA, Social Studies, or SEL.
- Culturally Responsive Teaching Implementing culturally relevant pedagogy requires the texts to unpack and discuss ways to examine identities.

The Collection also includes:

- Engaging content that is culturally relevant, including current events, primary sources, and unheard perspectives
- Embedded activities and classroom strategies to drive literacy skills and CC anchor standards
- Social Studies resources that reinforce C3 historical thinking skills
- CASEL-aligned Social-Emotional Learning strategies alongside the content
