

Tailor sessions for your needs with Newsela Professional Learning

We've outlined session topics for schools and districts to choose from and tailor for your needs. Grouped by five instructional pathways, you can use this as a guide to find the right fit based on your goals, audience, and setting. Click on each pathway to see details about sessions available.

1

Getting Started with Implementation

Help your educators get off to the right start with their Newsela licenses. Sessions include:

- Discovering Newsela
- Newsela and Your LMS
- Hybrid Instruction
- Analyzing Student Activity

2

Advancing Instructional Approaches

Connect your Newsela resources to the instructional approaches that matter most to your teams. Sessions include:

- Guiding Inquiry
- Supporting Student Engagement
- Analyzing Student Activity
- Differentiating Instruction
- Building Background Knowledge
- Cross-Curricular Literacy
- Addressing Academic Gaps with Intentional Scaffolds*
- English Learners: Building Language Skills with Newsela*
- Creating Meaningful Learning Tasks with Newsela*

3

Expanding Culturally Responsive Practice

Build comfort and capacity around culturally responsive content and teaching practices. Sessions include:

- Culturally Responsive Teaching
- Tackling Complex Topics
- Social Justice in Your Classroom
- LGBTQIA+ Studies
- Social-Emotional Learning

4

Aligning to Subject Area Skills and Standards

Support your departments in leveraging Newsela in service of their subject-area frameworks. Sessions include:

- Reading Skills to Reteach
- Vocabulary Development
- Rethinking History
- Integrating Science and Literacy
- Implementing Your Custom Collections

5

Growing Your Internal Capacity to Support Newsela

Identify your content specialists, coaches, and teacher leaders who can serve as internal Newsela experts over time. Options include:

- Short Cycle 1:1 Virtual Coaching*
- Half Year 1:1 Virtual Coaching*
- Full Year 1:1 Virtual Coaching*

Getting Started with Implementation

Help your educators get off to a great start with their Newsela licenses.

Session	Description	Format Options	Models
Discovering Newsela See sample agenda	Educators need accessible resources that reflect students' interests and experiences and help them to better understand the world around them. Newsela provides classrooms with high-quality, accessible content paired with interactive tools to help drive student engagement.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• New users• Train-the-trainer
Newsela and Your LMS See sample agenda (Google) See sample agenda (Canvas)	Effectively integrating existing technologies is critical to educator efficiency and a cohesive student experience. Newsela can be leveraged seamlessly with your learning management system, like Google Classroom and Canvas, to build meaningful learning activities for students.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• New users
Hybrid Instruction See sample agenda	Current educational structures and materials must support instruction and student engagement across hybrid learning environments. Newsela connects classrooms to content and teaching resources to flexibly support teaching and learning in and outside of the classroom.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• New users• Train-the-trainer
Analyzing Student Activity See sample agenda	Formative feedback guides student learning and is most effective when delivered in a timely and targeted manner. Newsela surfaces actionable insights of student performance to inform instruction and foster student agency.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• New users• Train-the-trainer

Advancing Instructional Approaches

Connect your Newsela resources to the instructional approaches that matter most to your teams.

Session	Description	Format Options	Models
Guiding Inquiry See sample agenda	Inquiry-based learning promotes student engagement and development of critical thinking skills. Newsela enables teachers to facilitate multiple models of student-driven exploration of content and essential questions in service of real-world application and action.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas
Supporting Student Engagement See sample agenda	Learning occurs when students are engaged, and students are more likely to engage when content makes a real-world connection to their lives or interests. Newsela offers texts on a range of interests and lived experiences with features to support student interaction and choice.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• Train-the-trainer
Analyzing Student Activity See sample agenda	Formative feedback guides student learning and is most effective when delivered in a timely and targeted manner. Newsela surfaces actionable insights of student performance to inform instruction and foster student agency.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• New users• Train-the-trainer
Differentiating Instruction See sample agenda	Teachers who differentiate build multiple means of expression and engagement into lessons to offer student options and promote ownership over learning. Newsela's accessible content, instructional supports, and interactive tools lay the foundation for personalized lessons and learning activities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• Train-the-trainer
Building Background Knowledge See sample agenda	The background knowledge a student brings to a reading has a significant impact on their engagement and comprehension. Newsela helps teachers scaffold learning with leveled texts that help students build understanding of a topic across multiple sources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas
Cross-Curricular Literacy See sample agenda	Teaching literacy across the curriculum builds comprehension, critical thinking, and communication skills. Newsela's wide range of content and instructional curations allow students to interpret and collaborate around complex texts of varied topics and types.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas

Advancing Instructional Approaches (cont'd)

Connect your Newsela resources to the instructional approaches that matter most to your teams.

Session	Description	Format Options	Models
Addressing Academic Gaps with Intentional Scaffolds*	Heading into school year 21-22, students will need support addressing learning gaps more than ever. There are no shortcuts -- just fundamental teaching principles in a new context. Newsela offers powerful tools that support educators to scaffold instruction and provide meaningful feedback in response to academic gaps.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• For coaches and administrators
Creating Meaningful Learning Tasks with Newsela*	Newsela's features and library can unlock more efficient and effective tracking and goal setting, differentiation, culturally responsive teaching, and so much more! Leveraging these tools purposefully requires a lens of meaningful and authentic technology integration - from the rollout to the tasks we create.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• Available for either a teacher or a leader audience
English Learners: Building Language Skills with Newsela*	During this session, participants will gain a deeper understanding of the language needs of English Learners (ELs) through the exploration of the WIDA English Language Development Standards and resources. After considering the needs of ELs, participants will map scaffolds and supports from Newsela to specific language needs of students. In a collaborative space, participants will develop an instructional plan using a Newsela article and features to take with them into the classroom.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• Available for either a teacher or a leader audience

Expanding Culturally Responsive Practice

Build comfort and capacity around culturally responsive content and teaching practices.

Session	Description	Format Options	Models
Culturally Responsive Teaching See sample agenda	Culturally relevant pedagogy is supported by instructional resources that unpack and discuss ways to examine identities. Newsela connects educators to content that supports understanding, engagement, and reflection on their personal identity and the identity of others.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• Train-the-trainer
Tackling Complex Topics See sample agenda	Discussing complex topics in the classroom helps students work across lines of difference to foster learning and develop advocacy skills for themselves and others. Newsela's real-world content can be used to support teachers in their efforts to foster critical conversations around complex topics.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific subjects: ELA and Social Studies
Social Justice in Your Classroom See sample agenda	Classrooms with a social justice orientation value learners' contributions and encourage them to question their learning materials and environments. Newsela connects students to real-world problems and traditionally marginalized narratives to support the consideration and critique of ideas, issues, and injustices in their worlds and school community.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas
LGBTQIA+ Studies See sample agenda	Inclusive curriculum includes representation of LGBTQIA+ people and their cultural contributions. The Newsela LGBTQIA+ Studies collection provides content and instructional resources that explore the history and topics associated with the LGBTQIA+ community throughout the past 100 years.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific subjects: ELA and Social Studies• LGBTQIA+ Studies (requires LGBTQIA+ Studies license)• Social-Emotional Learning (requires Newsela SEL Collection license)
Social-Emotional Learning See sample agenda	Emotions and relationships impact how and what we learn, as well as how we apply that learning. The Newsela Social-Emotional Learning Collection empowers teachers to incorporate SEL topics and strategies into their core instruction with real-world texts and embedded teaching resources grounded in Anti-Bias Anti-Racist practices.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas• LGBTQIA+ Studies (requires LGBTQIA+ Studies license)• Social-Emotional Learning (requires Newsela SEL Collection license)

Aligning to Subject Area Skills and Standards

Support your departments in leveraging Newsela in service of their subject-area frameworks.

Session	Description	Format Options	Models
Reading Skills to Reteach See sample agenda	Revisiting skills and standards across varied learning activities helps students reencounter strategies and expand their understanding. Newsela provides curated content and differentiated activities to engage students in reviewing essential reading skills.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific subject: ELA• Train-the-trainer
Vocabulary Development See sample agenda	Word awareness and language development are most effective when vocabulary is taught in context. Newsela supports vocabulary instruction with content and features that scaffold unknown words, foster vocabulary practice, and support language engagement.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific subject: ELA• Train-the-trainer
Rethinking History See sample agenda	Meaningful social studies instruction emphasizes critical inquiry, perspective-taking, and an understanding of enduring issues. Newsela inspires students to make real-world connections through discussion and analysis of diverse sources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific subject: Social Studies
Integrating Science and Literacy See sample agenda	Literacy plays an authentic role in scientists' work as they consult research, communicate findings, and engage in discourse. Newsela makes it easy for teachers to target ELA and scientific practices by incorporating diverse sources of information for students to evaluate and incorporate into their evidence-based arguments.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Virtual synchronous• Asynchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific subject: Science
Implementing Your Custom Collections See sample agenda	Curricular materials should serve your instructional priorities and students. Newsela Custom Collections align with districts' unique instructional goals, with curated, differentiated content, and customized lesson resources to support planning and implementation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In-person*• Virtual synchronous	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Multiple subject areas

Growing Your Internal Capacity to Support Newsela

Identify your content specialists, coaches, and teacher leaders who can serve as internal Newsela experts over time.

Session	Description	Format Options	Models
30-minute 1:1 Virtual Coaching Sessions, Biweekly via Zoom*	Personalized, growth-oriented support from expert coaches to build and sustain skills through the Try-Measure-Learn method. Supports authentic, differentiated, and rigorous literacy instruction in all subject areas. Builds internal capacity to become a Newsela expert who can support all teachers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Short cycle (3 coaching sessions)• Half school year (5 months: Nine Coaching sessions)• Full school year (10 months: Eighteen Coaching sessions)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Coaching for teacher leaders• Coaching for coaches and content specialists• Coaching for school and district administrators