

History, Headlines, and Lessons to Shape Tomorrow's Citizens

Inspire students with diverse content that connects history with current events, and promotes scaffolded, inquiry-based learning — all in one place.

- Engage students with relevant, diverse, and authentic materials like primary sources, biographies, speeches, and videos.
- Help all students access grade-level social studies concepts with embedded scaffolds and AI-powered tools such as a Text Translator, Guided Highlighting, Check Your Understanding questions, differentiated texts, and more.
- Create an inquiry-driven experience that places your students at the forefront using curated text sets for digital citizenship, media literacy skills, and C3 inquiry skills.
- Tailor instruction to the needs of your unique classroom and community with curriculum complements, content promotion tools and state-specific editions.
- Build literacy skills by helping students make sense of the world through texts, discussions, and critical thinking.

Students who used Newsela Social Studies weekly showed the equivalent of an additional year of instruction on their state social studies exam.

The screenshot displays the Newsela interface for a lesson titled "Ancient Civilization". At the top left is the Newsela logo. To the right are navigation icons: a hamburger menu, a search bar, and a blue button. Below the title "Ancient Civilization" are several horizontal lines representing text. On the right side of the main content area is a video thumbnail showing a man pointing at ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs. Below this are three content cards:

- VIDEO: Trade & conflict in Ancient Egypt (Thumbnail: Ancient Egyptian columns)
- VIDEO: Egypt: Pharaohs and women (Thumbnail: Great Sphinx)
- INFORMATION: Who are Egypt's Coptic Christians today? (Thumbnail: A Coptic priest)
