

History, Headlines, and Lessons to Shape Tomorrow's Citizens

Inspire students with diverse, state-specific content — including materials curated to support Arizona's standards and initiatives — that connects history with current events and promotes scaffolded, inquiry-based learning, all in one place.

Students who used Newsela Social Studies weekly showed the equivalent of an additional year of instruction on their state social studies exam.

- Engage students with relevant, diverse, and authentic materials like primary sources, biographies, speeches, and videos.
- Create an inquiry-driven experience that places your students at the forefront using curated text sets for digital citizenship, media literacy skills, and C3 inquiry skills.
- Build literacy skills by helping students make sense of the world through texts, discussions, and critical thinking.
- Drive success for all students with Luna, an AI assistant, that powers features such as a text leveler, text translator, checks for understanding, graphic organizers, and more to support all learners.
