

History, Headlines, and Lessons to Shape Tomorrow's Citizens

Inspire students with diverse, state-specific content — including materials curated to support New Mexico's standards and initiatives — that connects history with current events and promotes scaffolded, inquiry-based learning, all in one place.

- Engage students with relevant, diverse, and authentic materials like primary sources, biographies, speeches, and videos.
- Create an inquiry-driven experience that places your students at the forefront using curated text sets for digital citizenship, media literacy skills, and C3 inquiry skills.
- Build literacy skills by helping students make sense of the world through texts, discussions, and critical thinking.
- Drive success for all students with Luna, an AI assistant, that powers features such as a text leveler, text translator, checks for understanding, graphic organizers, and more to support all learners.

Students who used Newsela Social Studies weekly showed the equivalent of an additional year of instruction on their state social studies exam.
