

The Newsela SEL Collection

The content you need to integrate SEL & core instruction.

Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) is a top priority for districts everywhere. Empower teachers to integrate SEL into core instruction with relatable, accessible content and activities that put students in the right mindset to learn while reinforcing the disciplinary skills they need.

WHY CHOOSE THE NEWSELA SEL COLLECTION?

Aligned to the CASEL framework

- Organized by the five CASEL SEL competencies: self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationship-building, and responsible decision making
- Unit guides and Lesson Sparks give teachers an overview of how to build each SEL competency, so they are ready to use the content in their instruction
- Reinforces the skills students need to be academically successful, like goal setting and growth mindset in ELA or perspective taking and respectfully examining other cultures and points of view in social studies

Integrates with core instruction

- Reading comprehension quizzes and customizable writing prompts are included to help teachers integrate literacy and SEL
- Shareable annotations help teachers scaffold texts and start a dialogue with students
- Embedded SEL instructional supports give teachers easy-to-implement ideas for using the content to spark discussion and connection and build a foundation for academic success

Fosters more inclusive, identity-affirming classrooms

- Standalone anti-bias, anti-racism resources and lessons available for all grade bands provide students with background knowledge and shared vocabulary
- Includes resources from Teaching Tolerance, and aligned to the four domains of their anti-bias framework: Identity, Diversity, Justice and Action

Flexible and accessible for all students

- Relatable and relevant content helps explain and illustrate SEL competencies through real-world stories that are age appropriate for elementary, middle, and high school
- All content published in five different reading levels
